An essential element of Christian life is service to others. By serving each other, we are serving our Lord. Through your example you can model this to our Children and Youth as they grow in faith. The success of our programs depends upon many different volunteers. We are asking for each family to volunteer for at least one opportunity each year. Please mark your top five choices by numbering them 1-5 (most interested to least interested) and we will contact you with more information on how you can serve our Children and Youth.
